Procedures for Filing a Timely Response and Information Regarding the Hearing on the Objection

Contents. To facilitate a speedy and non-judicial resolution of a Claim subject to the Objection, any claimant filing a Response shall use its best efforts to include the following (at a minimum) in its filed Response, to the extent such materials are not attached to its proof of claim:

- a. a caption setting forth the name of the Bankruptcy Court, the name of the Debtors, the case number and the title of the Objection to which the Response is directed;
- b. the claimant's name and an explanation for the amount of the Claim;
- c. a concise statement, executed by (or identifying by name, address and telephone number) a person with personal knowledge of the relevant facts that support the Response, setting forth the reasons why the Bankruptcy Court should overrule the Objection as to the claimant's claim, including, without limitation (to the extent not set forth in its proof of claim), the specific factual and legal bases upon which the claimant intends to rely in support of its Response and its underlying Claim;
- d. a copy of or identification of any other documentation or other evidence of the Claim, to the extent not already included with the Claim that the claimant presently intends to introduce into evidence in support of its Claim at the hearing; provided, however, that for a Response filed in support of a Claim arising out of a lease of real property, the Response need not attach such lease if the claimant indicates its willingness to provide such documentation upon request;

- e. a declaration of a person with personal knowledge of the relevant facts that support the Response;
- f. the claimant's address, telephone number and facsimile number and/or the name, address, telephone number and facsimile number of the claimant's attorney and/or designated representative to whom the attorneys for the Debtors should serve a reply to the Response, if any (collectively, the "Notice Address"). If a Response contains Notice Address that is different from the name and/or address listed on the Claim, the Notice Address will control and will become the service address for future service of papers with respect to all of the claimant's Claims listed in the Objection (including all Claims to be reduced or disallowed) and only for those Claims in the Objection; and
- g. to the extent such person differs from the person identified pursuant to subsection e, above, the name, address, telephone number, facsimile number, and electronic mail address of the representative of the claimant (which representative may be the claimant's counsel) party with authority to reconcile, settle or otherwise resolve the Objection on the claimant's behalf (collectively, the "Additional Addresses"). Unless the Additional Addresses are the same as the Notice Addresses, the Additional Address will not become the service address for future service of papers.

Additional Information. To facilitate a resolution of the Objection, your Response should also include the name, address, telephone number and facsimile number of the party with authority to reconcile, settle or otherwise resolve the Objection on the claimant's behalf. Unless the Additional Addresses are the same as the Notice Addresses, the Additional Addresses will not become the service address for future service of papers.

Failure to File Your Timely Response. If you fail to file and serve your Response on or before the Response Deadline in compliance with the procedures set forth in this Notice, the Liquidating Trust will present to the Bankruptcy Court an appropriate order granting the relief requested in the Objection without further notice to you.

Each Objection Is a Contested Matter. Each Claim subject to the Objection and the Response thereto shall constitute a separate contested matter as contemplated by Bankruptcy Rule 9014, and any order entered by the Bankruptcy Court will be deemed a separate order with respect to such claim.

Additional Information

Requests for Information. You may also obtain a copy of the Objection or related documents on the internet, by accessing the website of www.kccllc.net/circuitcity.

Reservation of Rights. Nothing in this Notice or the Objection constitutes a waiver of the Debtors' and/or the Trust's right to assert any claims, counterclaims, rights of offset or recoupment, preference actions, fraudulent-transfer actions or any other claims against you by the Liquidating Trust. Unless the Bankruptcy Court allows your Claims or specifically orders otherwise, the Liquidating Trust has the right to object on any grounds to the Claims (or to any other Claims or causes of action you may have filed or that have been scheduled by the Debtors) at a later date on any grounds or bases. In such event, you will receive a separate notice of any such objections.

3. On November 12, 2008, the Office of the United States Trustee for the Eastern District of Virginia appointed a statutory committee of unsecured creditors (the “Creditors’ Committee”).

4. On November 12, 2008, the Court appointed Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC (“KCC”) as claims, noticing, and balloting agent for the Debtors in these chapter 11 cases pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 156(c).

5. On December 10, 2008, the Court entered that certain Order Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Sections 105 and 502 and Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 3003(c)(3), and 9007 (I) Setting General Bar Date and Procedures for Filing Proofs of Claim; and (II) Approving Form and Manner of Notice Thereof (Docket No. 890) (the “Claims Bar Date Order”).

The deadline for governmental units to file claims that arose before

¹ The Debtors and the last four digits of their respective taxpayer identification numbers are as follows: Circuit City Stores, Inc. (3875), Circuit City Stores West Coast, Inc. (0785), InterTAN, Inc. (0875), Ventoux International, Inc. (1838), Circuit City Purchasing Company, LLC (5170), CC Aviation, LLC (0841), CC Distribution Company of Virginia, Inc. November 10, 2009 was 5:00 p.m. (Pacific) on May 11, 2009 (the “Governmental Bar Date”). Pursuant to the Claims Bar Date Order, this Court approved the form and manner of the claims bar date notice, which was attached as Exhibit A to the Claims Bar Date Order (the “Claims Bar Date Notice”).

7. FACTS RELEVANT TO LOUISIANA CLAIMS

A. The Debtors’ Prepetition Operations

12. At all times relevant hereto, Debtor Circuit City Stores, Inc. (“CCSI”) was a retailer of products and services that operated retail stores across the United States. CCSI was headquartered and commercially domiciled in Virginia. Debtor Circuit City Stores West Coast, Inc. (“CCS-WC”) was a California corporation and was wholly-owned by CCSI. CCS-WC was created on February 3, 1994, with the contribution of CCSI’s West Coast division, including all Circuit City retail outlets in the states of Arizona, California, and Nevada, as well as CCSI’s West Coast division headquarters in Walnut, California. CCS-WC was established in order to allow the Debtors to more effectively manage the performance of their retail operations on the west coast of the United States. Since its creation and prior to the Petition Date, CCS-WC expanded its operations to include all Circuit City retail operations in the states of Colorado, Hawaii, Idaho, New Mexico, Oregon, Utah, and Wyoming. Since 2002, CCS-WC maintained its headquarters in Colorado, from which location it managed its retail operations.

13. Until such time that it ceased retail operations, CCS-WC purchased all of its inventory from CCSI. In addition, CCS-WC owned intangible property (e.g., trademarks, trade names and service mark). CCS-WC and CCSI entered into a non-exclusive agreement whereby CCSI licensed certain intangible property from CCS-WC (such property, the “Licensed Property”). Pursuant to the agreement, CCSI was permitted, but not required, to use the Licensed Property in its stores, including stores located in Louisiana.

14. The price paid by CCSI to CCS-WC for use of the Licensed Property was based on two independent marketing studies conducted in 1994 and 1999. The royalty rates in the license agreement were established at arm’s-length based on independent studies reflecting rates charged by third parties.

15. CCSI also provided certain management and administrative services to CCS-WC, including purchasing, merchandising, advertising, tax accounting, treasury, functions, computer support, employee benefit plan administration and general administrative services. These services were all performed by CCSI outside the State of Louisiana.

16. CCS-WC did not have any employees, did not own any property and did not maintain any retail facilities in Louisiana. CCS-WC did not actively engage in business in the State of Louisiana. All of CCS-WC’s activities were performed outside of Louisiana and CCS-WC did not at any time have a physical presence in or nexus to the State of Louisiana.

17. CCSI timely filed Louisiana Corporate Income and Franchise Tax Returns, pursuant to which CCSI took a deduction for royalties it paid to CCS-WC.

18. Based on an audit conducted by the Louisiana DOR for the fiscal years ending February 28, 1999 through February 28, 2006, the Louisiana DOR determined that CCS-WC owed Louisiana corporate income taxes for income allocable to the Licensed Property used by CCSI in Louisiana. The Louisiana DOR concluded, as a matter of law, that CCS-WC derived income from sources in Louisiana based on CCS-WC's license of the Licensed Property used by CCSI in Louisiana.

B. The Louisiana Claims

19. Through the Louisiana Claims, the Louisiana DOR asserts claims against the Debtors in the total amount of $8,910,854.19.

20. On or about December 5, 2008, the Louisiana DOR filed Claim 514 against Debtor CCS-WC. Through Claim 514, the Louisiana DOR asserts (a) a priority unsecured claim in the amount of $6,846,485.74 against Debtor CCS-WC on account of unpaid Corporate Income Tax (including interest thereon) for the fiscal years ending between February 26, 2006 and February 29, 2008 (the "Prepetition Period") and (b) a general unsecured claim in the amount of $1,088,669.75 against Debtor CCS-WC on account of penalties for unpaid Corporation Income Tax for the Prepetition Period. A true and correct copy of Claim 514 is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

21. On or about June 25, 2009, the Louisiana DOR filed Claim 13514 against Debtor CCS-WC. Through Claim 13514, the Louisiana DOR State asserts an administrative priority claim in the amount of $975,698.70 against Debtor CCS-WC on account of unpaid Corporate Business Tax (including penalties and interest thereon) for the period ending February 28, 2009. A true and correct copy of Claim 13514 is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

22. On or about February 1, 2011, the Louisiana DOR filed Claim 15207 against Debtor CCS-WC. Claim 15207 amends Claim 514. Through Claim 15207, the Louisiana DOR asserts (a) a priority unsecured claim in the amount of $3,990,694.51 against Debtor CCS-WC on account of unpaid Corporate Income Tax (including interest thereon) for the Prepetition Period and (b) a general unsecured claim in the amount of $563,222.10 against Debtor CCS-WC on account of penalties for unpaid Corporation Income Tax for the Prepetition Period. A true and correct copy of Claim 15207 is attached hereto as Exhibit D.

23. Upon information and belief, the sole basis for the Louisiana DOR to seek payment of the amounts sought pursuant to the Louisiana Claims is the alleged use by CCSI of the Licensed Property in the State of Louisiana.

OBJECTION TO LOUISIANA CLAIMS

24. By this Objection, the Liquidating Trust seeks entry of an order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 105(a), 502 and 503, Bankruptcy Rule 3007 and Local Bankruptcy Rule 3007-1, disallowing the Louisiana Claims in their entirety.

BASIS FOR OBJECTION

A. Applicable Law

1. The Louisiana Claims Do Not Provide Sufficient Information

25. Bankruptcy Rule 3001(c) provides, in relevant part, that “[w]hen a claim, or an interest in property of the debtor securing the claim, is based on a writing, the original or a duplicate shall be filed with the proof of claim.” The Louisiana Claims do not provide any information regarding the basis for or calculation of the amounts of the claims asserted therein.

26. Bankruptcy Rule 3001(f) provides, in relevant part, that “[a] proof of claim executed and filed in accordance with the [the Bankruptcy Rules] shall constitute prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claim.” A party objecting to the claim “has the burden of going forward to meet, overcome, or at a minimum, equalize the valid claim.” In re Frank, 322 B.R. 745, 753 (Bankr. M.D.N.C. 2005) (quoting FDIC v. Union Entities (In re Be-Mac Transport Co.), 83 F.3d 1020, 1025 (8th Cir. 1995)).

However, generally, the ultimate burden of persuasion rests with the claimant by a preponderance of the evidence. See Frank, 322 Br. at 754. Under certain circumstances where a claim is made against a debtor by a taxing authority, the tax payer bears the ultimate burden of proof. See, e.g. Raleigh v. Ill. Dep’t of Revenue, 530 U.S. 15, 21-22 (2000).

27. Although Bankruptcy Rule 3001(f) provides that a valid proof of claim constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of a claim, requests for administrative expense payment are not given the same evidentiary weight as proofs of claim. In re PT-1 Communications, Inc., 386 B.R. 402, 406-07 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 2007) (citing In re Silvas, 329 B.R. 193, 205 (Bankr. E.D. Va. 2005); In re Morgan, 48 B.R. 148, 149 (Bankr. D. Md. 1985)).

2. The Due Process Clause

28. The Louisiana DOR’s efforts to impose a tax on CCS-WC violates the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution. The Due Process Clause prohibits any state from “depriv[ing] any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law...” U.S. Const. amend XIV, §1. With respect to taxation, the Due Process Clause “requires some definite link, some minimum connection, between a state and the person, property or transaction it seeks to tax.” Miller Bros. v. Maryland, 349 U.S. 340, 344-45 (1954) (holding that Maryland could not impose the burden of collecting a use tax on a Delaware corporation that was located in Delaware but occasionally sold and delivered goods to Maryland residents). In order for a state to tax an out-of-state corporation, the corporation must have “purposefully directed” its activities at residents of the taxing state. See Quill Corp. v. North Dakota, 504 U.S. 298, 308 (1992). There must also be “a rational relation between the income attributed to the taxing state and the intrastate value of the corporate business.” Allied Signal, Inc. v. Director, Div. of Taxation, 504 U.S. 768, 772 (1992) (internal citations omitted).

29. CCS-WC owned and managed intellectual property, including the Licensed Property. CCS-WC licensed those marks to CCSI in exchange for a fee. CCSI then sold products to CCSI’s customers; and some of those products were affixed with the Licensed Property. CCS-WC did not have any customers in Louisiana. CCS-WC did not sell merchandise to Louisiana customers in Louisiana. CCS-WC did not direct advertising to persons in Louisiana. CCS-WC took no actions that were purposefully directed to Louisiana customers. CCSI’s payment of royalties to CCS-WC took place outside Louisiana.

30. CCS-WC did not control any aspect of CCSI’s business operations in Louisiana. Louisiana effort to tax CCS-WC’s income based on the license it granted to CCSI thus violates the Due Process Clause.

3. The Commerce Clause

31. The Louisiana DOR’s efforts to impose a tax on CCS-WC also violates the Commerce Clause of the United States Constitution. U.S. Const, Art. I, § 8, cl. 3. The Supreme Court has established a four part test to determine whether a state tax violates the Commerce Clause, as follows:

- (a) Is the tax applied to the activity with a substantial nexus to the taxing state?
- (b) Is the tax fairly apportioned?
- (c) Does the tax discriminate against interstate commerce?
- (d) Is the tax fairly related to services provided by the state?

Direct Marketing Ass'n v. Huber, Case No. 10-CV-01546-REB-CBS, 2011 WL 250566* (D. Colo. Jan 26, 2011) (citing Complete Auto Transit, Inc. v. Brady, 430 U.S. 274, 279 (1977)).

32. Here, CCS-WC has no nexus to Louisiana. CCS-WC merely licenses its intellectual property to CCSI, which did business in Louisiana and other states. Moreover, the transaction through which CCSI licensed the Licensed Property from CCS-WC took place outside of Louisiana. Louisiana has not provided the basis for its calculation of the tax, and thus there is not basis to support an assertion that the tax is fairly apportioned. The tax is unfair to interstate commerce because, among other things, it asserts a tax on a corporation that is not domiciled in and conducts no business in Louisiana. Finally, the tax is wholly unrelated to services provided by the state because Louisiana provides no services to CCS-WC directly or indirectly.

B. Objection to Louisiana Claims

33. Based on the Trustee's review of the Debtors' books and records, including tax returns filed in the state of Louisiana, correspondence from the Louisiana DOR and the Louisiana Claims, the Liquidating Trust objects to the Louisiana on the following grounds:

- (a) The amount of the claims asserted against CCS-WC by the Louisiana DOR are not reflected in the Debtors' books and records;
- (b) Upon information and belief, the Louisiana DOR has asserted some or all of the Louisiana Claims based on improper or erroneous calculations of the taxes claimed;
- (c) The Louisiana Claims do not provide any basis or support for the amounts of taxes claimed;
- (d) CCS-WC did not derive income from sources inside the State of Louisiana, and none of CCS-WC's income is attributable to sources from within the Louisiana;
